

MTVA AUDITION SELECTIONS
FOR 2005-2006

All pieces are included in the membership packet distributed at the beginning of the year. Since all works are public domain, copies may be made freely. Music may be found on the MTVA website, www.mtva.org. MIDI files may also be downloaded there. Please contact Lia Holland or Lewis Walling if you have any questions or problems.

MIDDLE SCHOOL HONORS:

"Alleluia" by William Boyce

<http://wso.williams.edu/cpd/sheet/boyc-all.pdf>

FRESHMEN HONORS:

"Sicut cervus" by Giovanni Pierluigi de Palestrina

<http://wso.williams.edu/cpd/sheet/pale-sic.pdf>

MID-STATE:

All students learn "Os Justi" by Anton Bruckner

<http://wso.williams.edu/cpd/sheet/bruckner/bruc-005.pdf>

In addition to the Bruckner piece, all WOMEN learn "Duo Seraphim" by Tomas Luis de Victoria.

<http://wso.williams.edu/cpd/sheet/victoria/vic-duo1.pdf>

In addition to the Bruckner piece, all MEN learn "Weep, O Mine Eyes" by John Bennet.

<http://wso.williams.edu/cpd/sheet/ben-weep.pdf>

Note that men should sing either the tenor or bass part as written, not a 4-part men's choir!