

MID-STATE CHOIR INFORMATION

Thursday, February 15, 2007 (snow date- February 22, 2007)

David Lipscomb University, Nashville, TN

NOTES:

- Please review the MTVA handbook for policies as they relate to this event! Directors are responsible for this information.
- Students should report directly to their rehearsal site no later than 8:45 AM. There will not be any type of registration prior to rehearsals.
- All music needs to be well-learned BEFORE (part-learning CD's) arriving at Mid-State. Come well prepared with music and pencils. Measures should be numbered as well. Bring the folders that are received from JW Pepper.
- There are several options both on and adjacent to campus where students can eat. They will need lunch and dinner money. The campus cafeteria and food court are available as well as a pizza place.
- Remember that no food or drink is allowed in rehearsal areas; BOTTLED WATER only.
- Plan ahead where their students will change clothes. They are not to bring any bags into the Alumni Auditorium. No specific changing facilities are provided; though there are plenty of restrooms around campus. Note that 600 students cannot all use the same one!
- Students are encouraged to attend the concert in which they are not performing; however, it is not required. Students should attend the entire concert in which they perform.
- Participation in All Mid-State Chorus is required before participation in All-State is allowed.
- No photocopies of copyrighted music will be permitted.
- Directors with students in All-State or All-State alternates will have a meeting at 10:00 AM (location TBA). All-State forms and fees should be turned in at that time. We WILL collect forms for all alternates, but not fees. Note that you received separate forms for directors and students; also note the group name on the form—there are three different groups. Make sure you complete the correct form.

Fees are as follows:

$60 director fee (paid ONCE)

$40 student fee (paid for EACH student in All-State)

It is not necessary to pay each group or fee separately; you may use one check to pay it all! Checks should be payable to MTVA. Remember, only director's or school checks are accepted!
